JOBLESS RATE DROPS FOR FIFTH STRAIGHT MONTH...

BUT STILL, MORE WORK TO DO

Our initiatives have helped to jump-start the economy; the unemployment rate is now at its lowest level since 2009. Connecticut may be emerging from the global recession, but we still have a long way to go. That's why my top priorities for this legislative session are to create more high-quality jobs and protect small businesses. Here's how:

- Expand the definition of a 'small business' from 50 to 100 employees to make thousands of additional Connecticut businesses eligible for loans and assistance;
- Help post-9/11 combat veterans returning from overseas find work by expanding grants to small businesses who train our soldiers for new careers; and
- Strengthen local manufacturing by creating a Connecticut Made campaign.
